Coins

Coin	Value	Counting
penny 	1¢ $0.01 one cent	count by ones  1¢ 2¢ 3¢ 4¢
nickel 	5¢ $0.05 five cents	count by fives  5¢ 10¢ 15¢ 20¢
dime 	10¢ $0.10 ten cents	count by tens  10¢ 20¢ 30¢ 40¢
quarter 	25¢ $0.25 twenty-five cents	count by twenty-fives  25¢ 50¢ 75¢ 100¢

MAKES ONE DOLLAR

 4 quarters = $1.00

 10 dimes = $1.00

 20 nickels = $1.00

 100 pennies = $1.00

Bills

Bill	Value	Counting
	$1 $1.00 one dollar	count by ones  $1 $2 $3 $4
	$5 $5.00 five dollars	count by fives  $5 $10 $15 $20
	$10 $10.00 ten dollars	count by tens  $10 $20 $30 $40
	$20 $20.00 twenty dollars	count by twenties  $20 $40 $60 $80

THE BACK OF EACH BILL

$1

$5

$10

$20

GOOD TO KNOW

- The dime is the smallest coin, but it is worth more than a penny or a nickel.
- Only the penny is copper. The other coins are silver.
- Real coins can look a little different. Quarters have many different backs.
- All bills are the same size. Read the number in the corner.
- $12.50 means 12 dollars and 50 cents.